

MEET OUR ANNUAL GATHERING AND MEETING AMBASSADORS

We are thrilled to have the opportunity to host ambassadors from our partner church, the United Christ in the Philippines (UCCP). Here are a few things you may need to know to introduce you to the ambassadors:

Bishop Elorde M. Sambat is the bishop of the Northernmost Jurisdictional area of the UCCP, The North Luzon Area (of which there are 7 total areas). He is headquartered out of Baguio City. In addition to oversight of the UCCP churches, Bishop Sambat has served on the Board of Trustees of Philippine Christian University Dasma Campus.

Rev. Noel Pagdilao

was elected Conference Minister of the Northwest Luzon Conference in 2014 and was re-elected this year for another term. He works with the churches in our partner conference, oversees the Christian Youth Fellowship, and a Church Camp run by the Conference. He is headquartered out of Laoag City, where the Conference Office is located.

Rev. Marjorie Belmonte is a pastor, along with her husband, Bruce. She studied at Northern Christian College in Laoag City and pastors at Cadaratan Bacarra. She works with issues of worship, Christian Youth Fellowship and Sunday Schools.

Rev. Marjorie Belmonte is a pastor, along

Alternate Delegate:

Rev. Lester M. Dipit.

Pastor Lester serves in Batac, as well as running an organic farm. He does a lot of work in his ministry with environmental and agricultural issues.

