

“PUT DOWN THE DUCKY”

The Potential of a Free Hand

Ernie once said on Sesame Street...“You have to put down the ducky if you want to play the saxophone!” Sometimes as church leaders we find that our hands are so full, that we are unable to try something new.

Your Penn West Partners in Faith Formation are here to help you put down the “ducky” and find the potential of a free hand!

Join us on April 8-9, 2016 at Camp Living Waters in Schellsburg for a time of conversation, reflection, renewal, and “setting down” to pick up the new things God may be calling us to try. We’re often so afraid to put down the Rubber Ducky we know and love that we never even try the saxophone. Or the ministry opportunity just outside the front door...

We will be welcoming The Rev Ryan W. Henderson, the Associate Conference Minister for Youth, Young Adults and Emerging Ministries in the New York Conference of the United Church of Christ as our guest speaker/leader for the weekend.

Registration information will be available in early 2016!
