

DRAFT
THE PENN WEST ACADEMY FOR MINISTRY

2022-2023 ANNUAL CATALOGUE

WELCOME

The vision of the Penn West Academy is: To know God and to be known by God in Christ Jesus.

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Penn West Academy for Ministry Catalogue! The Academy is a spiritual and educational program of the Penn West Conference of the United Church of Christ that aims to prepare women and men for service in local churches. Run under the authority of the Conference Committee on Ministry, the Academy provides courses in Biblical Studies, Theology, Worship and Preaching, Church History and United Church of Christ Covenant and Polity. This catalogue outlines educational opportunities for clergy and lay persons in the Academic Year of 2022-2023. If God is calling you to a deeper walk of faith or “to make this faith [your] own in reality of worship, in honesty of thought and expression, and in purity of heart before God,”[from the UCC Constitution] you might discern that the Penn West Academy is for you.

Grace and Peace,

Rev. Joseph Hedden, Dean

ASSOCIATION COMMITTEES ON MINISTRY & TUITION

The Application and Credentialing of all students takes place through the Association Committees on Ministry. Please submit the application found on the last page of this Catalogue to the chairperson of your Association Committee on Ministry. Completion of the full four year course of the Academy will result in a Certificate of Completion being issued; the Academy does not guarantee nor grant credentialing. Questions of Licensing, Commissioning and credentialing in the United Church of Christ are the responsibility of the Associations. Please be in direct and frequent covenantal contact with the Committee on Ministry of your Association regarding your discernment status.

The tuition for a student of the Penn West Academy is $400 per year. Payments should be made to the Penn West Conference by December 31st of each academic year. Payment should be addressed as follows:

Penn West Conference
Attn: Diane Fox
Suite PWC
312 South Maple Avenue,

Greensburg, PA 15601.

Students will be expected to purchase books or instructional materials. Students may wish to seek funding assistance from their home church or association. A student exploring the Academy may attend one weekend session free of charge. After this, tuition payments are expected.

AUDIT OPTION

The Penn West Academy now offers an audit option for those who would like to get some Continuing Education or have interest in a particular topic but do not wish to take the complete course offerings. Auditors will have access to four class lessons in a specific subject area (ie. Worship and Preaching or Old Testament) during the year for $60. Auditors will not be expected to turn in assignments but are welcome to participate in classroom discussion, etc. Course descriptions and topics covered can be found at the Conference Website: www.pennwest.org. So if you would like to hear what is new in the field of New Testament Studies or have trouble remembering the difference between John Calvin and John of Patmos, call the Dean, Joseph Hedden (412)-956-5252 now!

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Old Testament: In this course, students will survey the Old Testament as they develop critical skills for Biblical interpretation. Strong consideration will be given to historical context as students reflect on how the authors' messages relate to our present time.

New Testament: In this course, students will survey the New Testament as they develop critical skills for Biblical interpretation. Strong consideration will be given to historical context as students reflect on how the authors' messages relate to our present time.

Church History: This course will attempt to answer the question 'Who is Jesus Christ?' from an historical perspective. Students will sail through 2000 years of Christian thought from the close of the Canon until today.

Theology: Students in the Theology course will be introduced to approaches of theological study of the past and present. As they engage in these studies, students will learn to think and reflect theologically and spiritually. *All fourth year students are required to turn in before the final class a theology paper that may be included in the portfolio of Members in Discernment, upon the approval of their association advisor.

United Church of Christ Covenant and Polity: Students in this course will discover a deeper understanding and appreciate of the concept of covenant and how it relates to polity and structure in the UCC. Some Church and Ministry Committees may require this course for non-UCC ministers serving in UCC settings. All fourth year students are required to turn in before the final class a UCC Polity paper that may be included in the portfolio of Members in Discernment, upon the approval of their association advisor.

Worship and Preaching: This course provides an understanding of the theology of Christian preaching and worship. We will study the liturgical, exegetical, homiletical, theological, and pastoral dynamics of worship and preaching.

SPECIAL BLOCKS FOR 2022-2023

September 9: Orientation An overview of the year, interesting topics in the fields of theology, current events, the United Church of Christ and so on. We will end with communion.

October 7: Christ and Culture/Developmental Theories In 1951, H. Richard Niebuhr published his groundbreaking text Christ and Culture. He uses five models for how Christians relate to the surrounding culture. 1). Christ Against Culture. 2). Christ of Culture. 3). Christ Above Culture. 4). Christ and Culture in Paradox. 5). Christ Transforming Culture. We will also spend some time discussing developmental theories of adults.

March 10: Music in the Sanctuary and the Public Square Nicole Tascarella and Joseph Hedden will use the above five models to assess sacred/secular music. Topics will include: how to use secular music in worship, what is the line between secular and sacred?

May 12: How the church engages with culture Nicole Tascarella and Joseph Hedden will engage students with discussions regarding these topics.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Since there are many different types of students who enroll in the Penn West Academy, there is no one-size-fits-all course of study or discernment. However, it is important to remember that questions pertaining to Licensing, Commissioning, and Member in Discernment Status (MIDs) are issues for the MID in prayerful and frequent consultation with her or his Association Committee on Ministry. More information on the Member in Discernment Process is available on the United Church of Christ website (http://www.ucc.org/ministers_marks). Students and Committees on Ministry should make themselves very familiar with these documents and processes.

Students in the Penn West Academy must attend all four regular sessions plus the Boundary Training each academic year for 4 years. If a student misses more than one of these five total sessions in an academic year, he or she must repeat the year. Students should notify the Dean if they will be absent or if there are any circumstances that may alter their status as students in the Academy. Each student will be appointed a faculty mentor, with whom they must meet each academic year. The Dean and Faculty will report annually (usually in late May) on the progress of students to the Conference Committee on Ministry.

The Penn West Academy expects students to abide by a Code of Conduct informed by Christian values and practices. Relying on God's grace, students should live lives of honesty, prayer, Bible reading, and impartiality/fairness to others. Students are expected to be in regular contact with the faculty and Dean in regards to specific assignments and expectation. All work is expected to be one's own. Proper attribution is expected if students cite ideas from other authors/sources. If students have questions about academic standards, they are encouraged to research proper citations and how to write a bibliography. The Dean has these resources.

After graduation, students will meet with their Association Committee on Ministry to satisfy any additional requirements. Association Committees on Ministry may require additional education, service, spiritual direction, and may appoint graduates permanent Association advisors.
